Houses Started Since April 1 April 1, 1922, to Be Exempt.

Majerity Leader William T. Collins noon's meeting of the Board of Aldermen which provides that new buildings for dwelling purposes in this city shall be exempt from local taxation until 1932. The ordinance is framed ing that he felt very weak, but was as a result of the local tax exemption suffering no pain, the bulletin says. law passed at the recent extraordinlowed a special mesage to the Board from Mayor Hylan. In his message the Mayor says: "I call to your atrestrictions are carefully provided for, exemptions from taxes amounting in the period to almost one-third of the cost of building will be granted as a gratuity to the owners of buildings already erected, which have been completed since April 1 last, or are now under way; and that exemptions are provided for the owners of future dwellings and apartment houses for the rich or well-to-do paople, for whom there is no need for relief. Exemptions of this character would amount to millions of dollars which as a serious additional burden upon the general body of taxpayers."

Mayor Hylan's injunctions against ing the sending of troops to those promiscuous tax exemption grants by cities. It is said the Soviet Governpromiscuous tax exemption grants by empowering the Tenament House ment is emburrassed by the shortage Commissioner to state what exemptions, in his judgment, would be pounding of the enemy on the Polish worthy. But the Tenement House Commissioner's judgment is not final, War Department, is trying to lash his for his recommendations on this score must be made to the Board of Estimate, which is the ultimate judge. The Collins ordinance, which follows, was referred to the General Welfare Committee: * "New buildings in the City of New York, planned for dwelling purposes exclusively, except hotels, are hereby determined to be exempt from taxation for local purposes, other than for assessments for local improvements,
